YEAR 11 FORMAL

Sparkly dresses, smart suits, some crazy dance moves, LOUD music, newly announced and excited School and House captains, and delicious food. This was the Year 11 Formal on Wednesday 15th November, held at Geelong Cats stadium. So lovely to see students having a great time together, and being able to socialise at their tables and on the dance floor. One of the highlights was the conga line including nearly every student (and a number of teachers) making its way around the entire room, and then back to the spotlight dance floor.

Congratulations to our Year 11s for their impeccable behaviour on the night, congratulations to our incoming captains for 2024, and a huge thankyou to Michelle Ferry for her organisation of the evening. Michelle worked tirelessly along with a Year 11 Formal committee, and I want to thank those students for their creative flair and contribution of time towards their special night.

Bronwyn Knight.

MUSIC NEWS

Oberon's Music Department congratulates its senior students for their efforts in exams and a big year. At the same time as being sad to say farewell to a golden bunch of musicians in the higher years, it's exciting to see new generations of bands emerging in the junior years such as rock 'n roll youngsters "Electric Stardust" (Remy Duval, Max Mitchell & Tom Wilson), "The Dreamers" (Scarlett Pogue, Vaeda Williams, Jasmin Mayor, Otis Pogue and again, Remy Duval) and "GobSmacked!" (Blake Armistead, Eli Bonner, Oscar Lawrence, Riley Walsh & Madilyn Dyer). These bands joined by "Sinking Horizon" (Ellis Ante, Isaac Young, Lachlan Carter-Rijnders and again, Eli Bonner) and "Spinach" (Ash May, Abbey Waites, Nick Ryan & Tye Lang) represented the school with their original and stand out acts at the Royal Geelong Show on Friday 20th October. They did Oberon so proud and each student gained vital performance experience at this excursion.

The Music Department also had the privilege of having Musical Futures Australia come for an incursion across all year levels on Thursday 9th November. Seventeen students participated in a program called Soul Sonics delivered across three hours by Jason, an industry professional that goes by the name of 'DJ Sizzle'. Students had an intensive session in music production where they learnt how to operate a Digital Audio Workstations (DAW). This enabled them to record natural sounds around the classroom and beyond using wireless recorders which they then transformed into their own beats within the software.

With the Rockband program having grown to fifty-two students across thirteen bands and the Student and Staff Choir gaining an exciting repertoire – Music at Oberon HS is truly something rewarding to be involved in.

Keep it up everyone!

DANIEL RULES THE AIRWAVES

Over the course of the year during his Year 11 Business Management classes, Daniel Preston has been working on creating his very own radio show. Daniel interviewed students and staff, to provide his listeners with up-to-date news and information regarding the school. His aim was to provide the Oberon community with a youth voice and entertainment, and on November 17, he did just that.

During lunch on the 17th, Daniel premiered 'The Daniel Preston Show' on 107.1 FM. Many students and staff across the school tuned in and it was a successful episode.

A promotional graphic for "THE DANIEL PRESTON SHOW". It features a portrait of Daniel Preston wearing sunglasses. The text reads: "LISTEN TO US NOW GEELONG THE DANIEL PRESTON SHOW IS ON AIR NOW TUNE TO 107.1 FM". Below the portrait, it says: "FEATURING THE BIGGEST STARS FROM OBERON. INCLUDING TEACHERS, STAFF AND STUDENTS. AND PROVIDES A LOCAL YOUTH VOICE TO THE OBERON COMMUNITY." and "THIS BROADCAST STARTED AT :PM TODAY." At the bottom, it says "Go One Better Radio 107.1".

A colorful poster for a GAWS appeal. It features illustrations of a brown rabbit, a red and white dog, a white and brown dog, and a brown parrot. The text reads: "GAWS APPEAL DONATIONS", "DONATE TOWELS, BLANKETS, SCRATCHING POSTS AND UNUSED PET FOOD", "DONATIONS ACCEPTED AT OFFICE", and "from 13/11/23 to 27/11/23".

REN ALESSANDRA SLAM POETRY WORKSHOPS

Last Monday, the Australian 2020 Slam Poetry Champion, Ren Alessandra, visited Oberon to run poetry workshops with our Year 7 English classes. Some of our Year 7s have shared their thoughts on the workshops below:

Ren introduced herself and explained what poetry was to the students. Then she began with some fun poetry activities. We used the five senses to brainstorm before writing a poem about our favourite food with the person sitting next to us. It was a fun, silly activity meant to prove that poetry can be absolutely anything. Some poems were short and some were long, but we all had fun doing it. I'm sure all of the classes had a great time during REN's visit and learned something new about poetry or her.

Thank you, Ren for visiting!

Ella Matheson

When Ren Alessandra came in to teach us about poetry many kids spoke of how boring and annoying poetry is, but after this session everyone loved it which displays the effect of the time she spent with us. It was incredible seeing how something as basic as food got everyone so engaged and interested in writing about how it smelt, how it tasted and even how it felt. From peers making puns about penne to a rap about spam, everyone was laughing and enjoying themselves. We are all so grateful for the time she put in to teach us and it was an amazing experience for all of us.

Otis Pogue, 7G

Ren Alessandra's visit was really good in my opinion. She was really nice and helpful to those who didn't even know what a poem was. At the start, I didn't really enjoy poems but when she involved us into poetry I completely changed my mind. She even talked about herself not liking poetry for a long time then changing her mind. It was really enjoyable for everyone in my opinion. I especially enjoyed the making of our own poems. I read out mine, which was about spam.
